

Meet the Author Hope Marston and Illustrator Bob Renaud

February 11, 2010 1:30 - 3pm at McEwen Library

Eye on the Iditarod Aisling's Quest

Aisling Lara Shepherd with Hope Irvin Marston

Illustrated by Bob Renaud

Author Hope Marston and illustrator Bob Renaud will be autographing copies of the book "Eye on the Iditarod: Aisling's Story." This is the real-life story of Aisling (pronounced "Ashley") Lara Shepherd, a young girl with a big dream. From the time that she was 3, Aisling loved watching sled dog racing on television. Inspired by the drive and determination of the dogs and the people who race them, Aisling set out on a person quest to one day run her own dogs in the famous Iditarod race in Alaska. Follow eleven year old Aisling as she conquers obstacles, deals with heartbreak and loss, and achieves great victories, all the while keeping her eye on the Iditarod. The book will be on sale.

For more information call the library at 772-9099.